

Will be promptly executed by The Dispatch Job Printing Department. Skilled workmen and excellent equipment enable us to turn out printed matter pleasing to the most particular. A trial order will convince you.

The Mahoning Dispatch.

DISPATCH WEEKLY VISITS

We feel sure will prove entertaining as well as profitable to you. The DISPATCH covers its field in a manner unsurpassed by any weekly. We still have room on our subscription lists for you and your friends.

VOL. XXXIX. NO. 12.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, JUNE 18, 1915.

$1.00 A YEAR

WASHINGTONVILLE

Bright, breezy paragraphs telling the happenings in the village on Mahoning's Southern Border.

By CLARENCE BAKER

Mrs. Peeler was a Salem caller Saturday evening.

Joe Thorp is home from Columbus for a few days.

J. C. Welkart was in Lisbon on business Saturday.

George Vaughn is home from West Point this week.

Miss Sadie Simpson was home from Sebring over Sunday.

Harry Bowker visited his mother at Springfield Lake Sunday.

Hon. Percy Telford is moving his family to Leetonia this week.

Miss Mercedes Gilbert was a Columbian caller Tuesday afternoon.

Fred Barton has returned here from the Springfield lake sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Heintzelman were in Youngstown last Saturday.

Miss Ida Young of Elwood, Pa., is visiting relatives here for a few days.

Misses Blanch, Mary and Vera Heintzelman visited at Marquis over Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Bowker of Girard visited Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Laura Grimm.

Miss Mary Heaton visited in Salem last week with her sister, Mrs. Frank Heckert.

Jack Paisley and Fred Weingart were at Southern park last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Elsie Fisher of Youngstown visited her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Dalrymple, over Sunday.

Bert Welkart and family spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Welkart.

Mrs. Wm. Bowker returned home from the Springfield Lake sanitarium last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hawkins and daughter of Belmont spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson and Hazel of Leetonia spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mrs. Wm. King of Salem spent Monday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roller.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith and children spent last Sunday with relatives in Greenford.

Quite a number from here attended the Eastern Star picnic in Southern park last Thursday.

Geo. Senheiser and son Charles of New Castle spent Friday evening with Mrs. Charles DeJaffe.

Mrs. Wm. Simpson and two daughters visited Mrs. Thomas and wife in Youngstown last week.

Bert Simpson and family of Mineral Ridge called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mat Simpson, Sunday.

Carl Bossert went to Columbus to attend commencement of the Ohio State University this week.

Mrs. James Hartzell and two children of Harpersville is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tom Murphy.

John Davis of Youngstown and Geo. Lentz and two daughters were Sunday callers at Hon. Percy Telford's.

Mrs. Walter Fulkerson of New Castle is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeJaffe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Longbottom and Mrs. Annie Senior were out auto riding Monday evening with friends.

Seth Davis and wife and little son and Julia Greenwalt of Salem called on Aba Stouffer and family last Sunday.

Mrs. Clifford Smith and little daughter of Canton are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Toudot, for a few weeks.

Mrs. Walt Senior's little girl was bitten by a dog Tuesday evening and had to have several stitches put in her leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barclay of Sebring and Mrs. Ann Goodson of Mineral Ridge were Sunday callers at John Simpson's.

John Gilbert, Harry McNeal, Ansel Senheiser, Paul Senheiser and Arthur Johnson were at Southern park last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Louise Vignon and two sons left for Youngstown last Saturday to attend her son, August Vignon's, wedding, which occurred Tuesday, June 16.

Mr. Manuel Bliske of Youngstown, Mrs. Hattie Townsend and Mrs. Ann Myers and two daughters of Columbiana were guests at John Cole's Friday.

Mrs. Herbert Smedley, Mrs. Dan Heaster and children and Mrs. Elmer Engermill and little daughter went to Rochester, Pa., last Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Layton Delator a few days.

Mrs. Harley Woods was hostess to the Woman's Home Circle Friday evening. The time was spent with fancy work and a contest. During the evening a delicious lunch was served.

Misses Grace and Clara Welkart were invited guests. The ladies will meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Arthur Johnson.

Word was received here last Friday of the death of Frank Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Graham, in Cleveland. Frank Graham was born in Lisbon about 24 years ago and is well known in that town. He was stricken some time ago with tuberculosis, and for some time his condition had been serious and his death was not unexpected. Besides his parents he is survived by two brothers and two sisters, Misses Nestle and Evelyn, and Albert and Ivan.

A. P. Sandies, president of the Ohio agricultural commission, will deliver the class address at the Columbiana county rural school picnic and presentation of eighth grade certificates at Shelton's Grove on Saturday, June 19, under the direction of county and district superintendents. The picnic is declared to be for everyone—fathers, mothers, sisters and brothers. "There will be a great dinner if you bring a well-filled basket," says the announcement, which includes the long list of athletic events to be participated in by the class of 188 to assemble at that time. J. Will Davidson of Lisbon will act as starter, and Joseph Thorp of Washingtonville, as referee, and the judges will be named later.

MILLVILLE

June 16—Miss Amanda Keen of Franklin Square was here Monday taking orders for a book containing Billy Sunday's sermons. She also sold bibles and dictionaries.

John Rhodes of Greenford and Mr. Etriken of North Lima were here Thursday.

Miss Minnie Lippitt is canvassing for a Chicago firm.

Mrs. David Fogg and children of Salem visited relatives here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bricker of near Salem called on friends here Wednesday evening.

Miss Mary Herbert of Salem, one of the six contestants in the gold medal contest held Friday evening at Perry grange hall, won the coveted prize by her excellent presentation of "Who Killed King's Baby?" Judges of the merits of the selection given by the silver medal holders were F. E. Betz, S. N. Vail, Brown and Miss Ava Barnes. Two solos were contributed by Mrs. A. G. Coburn and a duet by Clara and Luther Stewart. An enjoyable feature not on the program was given by the members of the grange while the judges were reaching their decision. This was a pantomime "The Star Spangled Banner" which is soon to be presented at the lecture hour. It was splendidly carried out while Mrs. A. G. Coburn and Mrs. James McConner sang the national anthem.

H. E. Detwiler and E. D. Kellerman of Pittsburgh called here Wednesday.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Orr was the scene of a happy reunion Sunday when they entertained the following: J. F. Moore and family, Dan Orr and family, Mrs. Isabel Roberts and son Harry of Youngstown.

Frank Willaman and C. J. Gibson of Salem called on friends here Monday.

Mrs. F. T. Dressel and daughters Esther and Marjorie of near Salem were recent visitors here.

F. T. Jacobs of Erie, Pa., spent a few days here with friends the past week.

Mrs. Geo. Orr was in Salem Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Holland has returned from a visit with friends in New Buffalo.

Mrs. Geo. Long of near Teogarden is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Shepherd.

Mrs. Wm. Sheen, Mrs. Chas. Sheen and baby, Raymond Sheen and Miss Mabel Good were recently entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Yoder of Washingtonville.

Perry grange will hold a strawberry and ice cream festival in the near future. They will also be in charge of the lecture hour at the meeting of Salem grange Thursday evening.

Monday, June 14, was observed as Flag Day by many here by displaying the flag. Several also attended the band concert in Salem in the evening.

Howard Towne of Angola, Ind., spent Saturday and Sunday with friends here.

The strawberry season which was delayed by frosts and rainy weather, is on. Local growers shipped fruit from Leetonia Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roller received word that their little great granddaughter, Helen Oesch, of Canton, is dangerously ill of spinal meningitis at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oesch.

June 16—Charles Calladine of Salem spent a few days here recently with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roller.

Prof. C. C. Zimmerman of Damascus called this week on relatives in this locality.

Mrs. C. D. Arner and Miss Lucy Alverson spent Thursday at the meeting of the Home Circle at the home of Misses Clara and Viola Zimmerman in Clarksville.

Several from here attended the Children's day exercise in Salem churches last Sunday.

Mrs. Maurice Strawn and Mrs. Chas. Pile of Damascus spent Thursday with the guests of Mrs. Frank Zimmerman.

At the last meeting of the Greenford grange Charles Alverson was given the first two degrees. The third and fourth degrees will be conferred Tuesday evening, June 22.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Holwick of Salem spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holwick.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Baker of Salem, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baker, of South Bend, Ind., were guests of local friends here Sunday.

David Reese, Jr., of Lisbon, spent a few days here last week with his mother, Mrs. Anna Reese.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schroy of Greenford called Saturday on friends here. Harold Coy spent the week end in Canton, the guest of his sister, Mrs. O. E. Bush.

H. W. Weisberger, Salem ornithologist, will hold a picture show in the schoolhouse Friday evening, June 18. There will be about one hundred different pictures showing birds and their nests. Along with the pictures Mr. Weisberger will tell of the habits and characteristics of the birds.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oesch and daughter Doris, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reese and daughter Roberta of Salem, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Perry Oesch of Valley.

Miss Faye Pile of Damascus spent Sunday here, the guest of Miss Mabel Good.

Last Monday was Flag Day and flags were displayed on many homes here.

Strawberry picking is on here. The crop, however, is not as abundant as usual on account of the recent hard frosts.

The Young Men's class of our Sunday school was organized last Sunday with Mr. Frederick as teacher. At the same time the following officers were elected: Treasurer, Albert Atkins; secretary, Raymond Arner. The class name has not yet been chosen. Our Sunday school is doing very well with an increasing attendance each Sunday.

A few from here attended the gold medal contest held at Perry Grange Hall last Friday evening.

Carl Clay of Gettysburg was in the village Monday selling flowers.

Read Harp of Various Things column.

Read Harp of Various Things column.

Read Harp of Various Things column.

Read Harp of Various Things column.

Read Harp of Various Things column.

Read Harp of Various Things column.

Read Harp of Various Things column.

Read Harp of Various Things column.

Read Harp of Various Things column.

Read Harp of Various Things column.

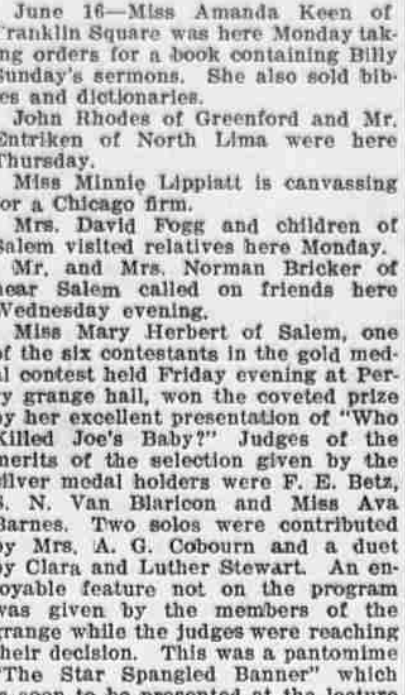

Read Harp of Various Things column.

Read Harp of Various Things column.

Read Harp of Various Things column.

Read Harp of Various Things column.

JUST DREAMING

EAST LEWISTOWN

June 16—Earl Burns is assisting L. W. Mentzer in the construction of a concrete bridge on the Canfield-Columbiana road, a short distance south of the Boyer school house.

Warren Bare of Youngstown spent Sunday here with his mother.

Several from here were at Southern park last Saturday to see Barney Oldfield turn fast miles in an automobile and Thompson do stunts in a flying machine. Both exhibitions were thrilling.

Aaron Culp is visiting relatives and friends in this place and vicinity.

Miss Nila Burns spent a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Frank Barger.

Roy Guy of East Palestine spent a few days last week here with his grandmother, Mrs. Barbara Blosser.

A. H. Burns is suffering with typhoid fever, but his condition is reported to be improving.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Davis spent last Saturday and Sunday with Cleveland friends.

Quite a number from this neighborhood attended children's day exercises through the Dispatch to return home last Sunday evening in Paradise Reformed church near New Buffalo.

Miss B. Shutter was removed last week to the home of her brother, Samuel Shutter.

Master Willie Sauerwein is recovering from an attack of mumps.

Miss Hazel Engler spent Sunday here with her sister, Mrs. Frank Kumbacher.

Miss Mabel Burns, who is slowly recovering from her illness, wishes to thank the friends who sent her 145 beautiful post cards on Tuesday, the occasion being her birthday. She will be glad to have one and all call and see her when convenient.

Greenhouse crops in the section look well despite the fact that the season has been rather unfavorable.

We regret that there are not more marriages to report in Beaver township this leafy month of June.

Harvey E. Rohrer was the first on Eureka avenue to make hay.

I. T. Rohrer has already purchased considerable wool at 20 and 30 cents per pound. Mr. Rohrer, during the season just closed, shored more than 200 head of sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin and son Daniel of Chester, Wayne county, are visiting I. T. Rohrer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weaver of Calpalpa street spent last Sunday with friends in East Palestine.

Growing crops look fine in Beaver township.

OHL'S CROSSING

June 16—Mrs. Fannie Woods and son Roy of Salem have been visiting at Charles Corli's.

Mrs. Frank Brady of Girard has returned home after spending a week here with her aunt, Mrs. Frank Klingemann.

Glen McMahon of West Austintown called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McMahon, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Brandyberry and son Blaine of Ohiotown recently visited at C. S. Nelson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Baird and son Roy of Green township visited at Jefferson Corli's Sunday.

Mrs. Florence Whitford of Girard is spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Kate Everett.

Gus Bailey of Warren recently visited old friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hughes and son were week-end guests of Martin Shears.

John DeCamp recently entertained his sons Judson and Butler of Youngstown.

Howard and Maudeline Snyder spent last Friday with Francis Corli.

Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Eva Fletcher to Charles Griffin of Cleveland. Miss Fletcher formerly made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ewing.

Dan Lawrence was a Youngstown caller Monday.

KNAUFVILLE

June 16—Mrs. Amelia Duetman of Geauga county is spending a few days at J. H. Lovers's.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Knauf and daughter Grace spent Sunday with Ed Goodman and family of Canfield.

Miss Ina Esterly of Toot's Corners spent Sunday night with her cousin, Miss Elsie Knauf.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Knauf and daughter Grace were in Youngstown Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Mayer returned home Sunday from the Youngstown City hospital. She is reported to be getting along nicely.

Nicholas Knauf and daughter Ethel and Miss Nellie Knauf saw the airplane flight and auto races at Southern park last Saturday.

MILTON

June 16—The Weaver-Carson reunion was held at Newton Falls last Saturday. A number from here were in attendance. Dinner was served by the Ladies' Aid Society. About 80 friends and relatives attended and all reported a good time.

Milton Grange last Saturday evening held an ice cream social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shrader, netting the "new ball" fund a neat little sum.

Wedding bells have again rung in Milton, this time for Miss Irene Lewis of Palmyra and Milton Florence. The young couple have the best wishes of many friends.

The W. C. T. U. of Pricetown held one of their regular meetings in the home of Mrs. Porter Saturday afternoon. Prayer and song service and the reading of several interesting papers by members made up the program. A nice lunch was served by the hostess.

Geo. Reed and family of Canfield spent Sunday at W. A. Reed's.

Bert Deetchon was in Cortland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Stille accompanied by Clarence and William Stille, motored to Niles last Wednesday.

Miss Lottie Klingemann is in Warren caring for her sister, who is quite sick with measles.

Miss Esther Eckis is spending a week in Berlin.

Mrs. Jacob Henderson is not improving. Mr. Henderson's sister is here from Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Vint Porter are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl who came to their home a week ago last Saturday.

Samuel Hahn called at Alf. Reed's one day last week.

Glenn Creed is laying the foundation for his new barn.

Work on the frame hall is well under way. What is most needed now is a "strong pull" and a pull together. "Many hands make light work."

Elwood Rose and wife and Mr. Hubbard and son of North Benton spent Sunday at C. S. Nelson's.

Mrs. S. C. Rose was accompanied home from the Weaver reunion by Miss Pearl Porter of Ravenna who will spend a week with her aunt Helen.

David Stille and Monroe Klingemann are each building a garage.

The Klingemann family reunion will be held at the home of Monroe Klingeman Saturday, June 19.

Children's day exercises at the Orr's Corners church Sunday evening, June 20. All are invited.

Mrs. Wm. Creed has returned from the city.

Mrs. Leon Florence was in Youngstown last Wednesday.

BERLIN CENTER

June 16—Mrs. Howard Woolf is a victim of typhoid fever. A trained nurse is caring for her.

Bert Durr and John Hoyle are serving on the grand jury.

The North church will hold Children's day exercise next Sunday evening. The Methodists have postponed theirs till June 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hanney entertained an auto party from Youngstown last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hawkins and Clyde Hawkins, wife and daughter Bertrice were Sunday guests of friends in Youngstown.

John Diver made a business trip to Youngstown Saturday.

Miss Luella King resigned her position in the telephone office and Miss Audelengene Smith has taken her place.

Dr. and Mrs. Gudgel spent Saturday in Youngstown.

Miss Myrtle Johnston of Canfield is the guest of Mrs. Pearl King.

Monroe Goodman and Fred Noel made a business trip to Youngstown Tuesday.

Sam Antram is loading hay on cars for shipment.

Fred Hanney has purchased a motor-cycle.

Emanuel Cronick was painfully burned Sunday morning while starting a fire with kerosene oil.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Burkey were Sunday guests of Rosemont relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cover entertained an auto party Sunday.

Mrs. Ernest Vickers is reported quite poorly.

Mrs. W. B. Shively was in Alliance the latter part of last week.

There was a fairly good attendance at the meeting of Berlin township people last Thursday night to organize an association to take care of the cemeteries near the village. A committee of five was named to draft the necessary rules to govern the proposed organization and a report will be made at a meeting to be held later. The committee having the work in charge is composed of Dr. G. L. King, S. A. Reinkenberger, L. E. Hawkins, Mr. M. W. King and Mrs. Herman Gross.

NEW BUFFALO

June 16—Mrs. Carl Clay of Gettysburg spent Saturday and Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Free Rupright.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Boston of Salem brought Mrs. Boston's mother here Saturday to spend the day and Sunday with her son, John Morris.

Ell Koenreich is very much improved.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman returned last week from Los Angeles, Cal., and she says she is glad to get back to Ohio.

Henry Hess got a new Dodge car last week.

Freeman Beard and wife of Struthers called at E. G. Mott's Sunday.

Warren Loveland and daughter Sarah were at John Elser's Sunday.

Fred Sprinkle and family of Woodworth visited at Alvin Thoman's Sunday.

Arthur Hixson and son Grant of Columbiana visited I. N. Hixson here Sunday.

New Buffalo friends extend best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rupert.

Among the Canfield normal graduates living around here are Ivan Thoman, Edna Lynn, Bryan Lynn, Vern Rupert and Leta Smith.

Children's day exercises at the Lutheran church here next Sunday morning at 9:30, sun time, instead of in the evening as noted in last week's paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Stroup of Struthers called on Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hess Sunday. Mrs. Stroup is a niece of Mrs. Hess. She was formerly Edna Ramsey of this place.

G. S. Beard was home Sunday and Monday. His wife accompanied him to Rochester, Pa., and will remain with him.

Mrs. Archie Beard was at the Youngstown hospital Monday to see her niece, Mrs. Walker, formerly Mabel Barger, of this place. She is getting along very well after having her appendix and 102 gall stones removed.

Mrs. Catherine Messerly is spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Morris Goodman, near Toot's Corners.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Meeker motored with their son and wife to Lordstown Saturday afternoon.